THE HERSHEY WAY

This is a success story, the story of a year in the lives of over thirteen hundred boys who attend Milton Hershey School, founded by the late Milton Snavely Hershey, the Chocolate King.

This is the story of how we live, how we work, how we play, how we develop into trained, responsible , mature young men, ready to earn our livelihood, defend our country, or continue our education for greater service to our fellow men.

This is the story of the great service rendered our state and our nation, without cost to any citizen, in the Hershey Way.

SENIOR HALL–Milton Hershey School's Educational Facilities, Senior Division.

Atop PAT'S HILL, serene and proud she stands,
A symbol of the love that one man bore
For his own fellow men. Boys of today
Will be the men of many a year to come,
The bulwark of a nation strong and free,
Where Justice, Freedom, Right, and Industry
Shall make of us a leader of the world.
What better contribution to our land
Than this: To train young men in mind and hand
Who by loss of loved ones were deprived
Of opportunity? What monument
Of stone, or bronze, or marble could surpass
This tribute to his love for orphan boys?
This gift to all whom he has left behind?

Dr. John O. Hershey, President

The staff of the 1967 Acropolis proudly salutes our President, under whose tireless and progressive leadership many new opportunities have come to Milton Hershey School.

Good Schools Depend

The staff of the 1967 Acropolis proudly salutes an excellent administrator, whose actions, we believe, are governed by the Administrator's Creed offered below.

Dr. Richard A. Rudisill, Headmaster

On Good Leadership

An Administrator's Creed

I will try to evaluate each problem fairly and objectively, regardless of the personalities and circumstances involved.

I will try to exercise human sympathy when dealing with students and teachers.

I will try to make every one feel that I am a helper and a counselor rather than a boss.

I will try to delegate responsibility when possible, being always careful to give the necessary authority to the responsible person in order to do the particular job.

I will consult daily with my Maker in order to avail myself of His wisdom and spiritual guidance.

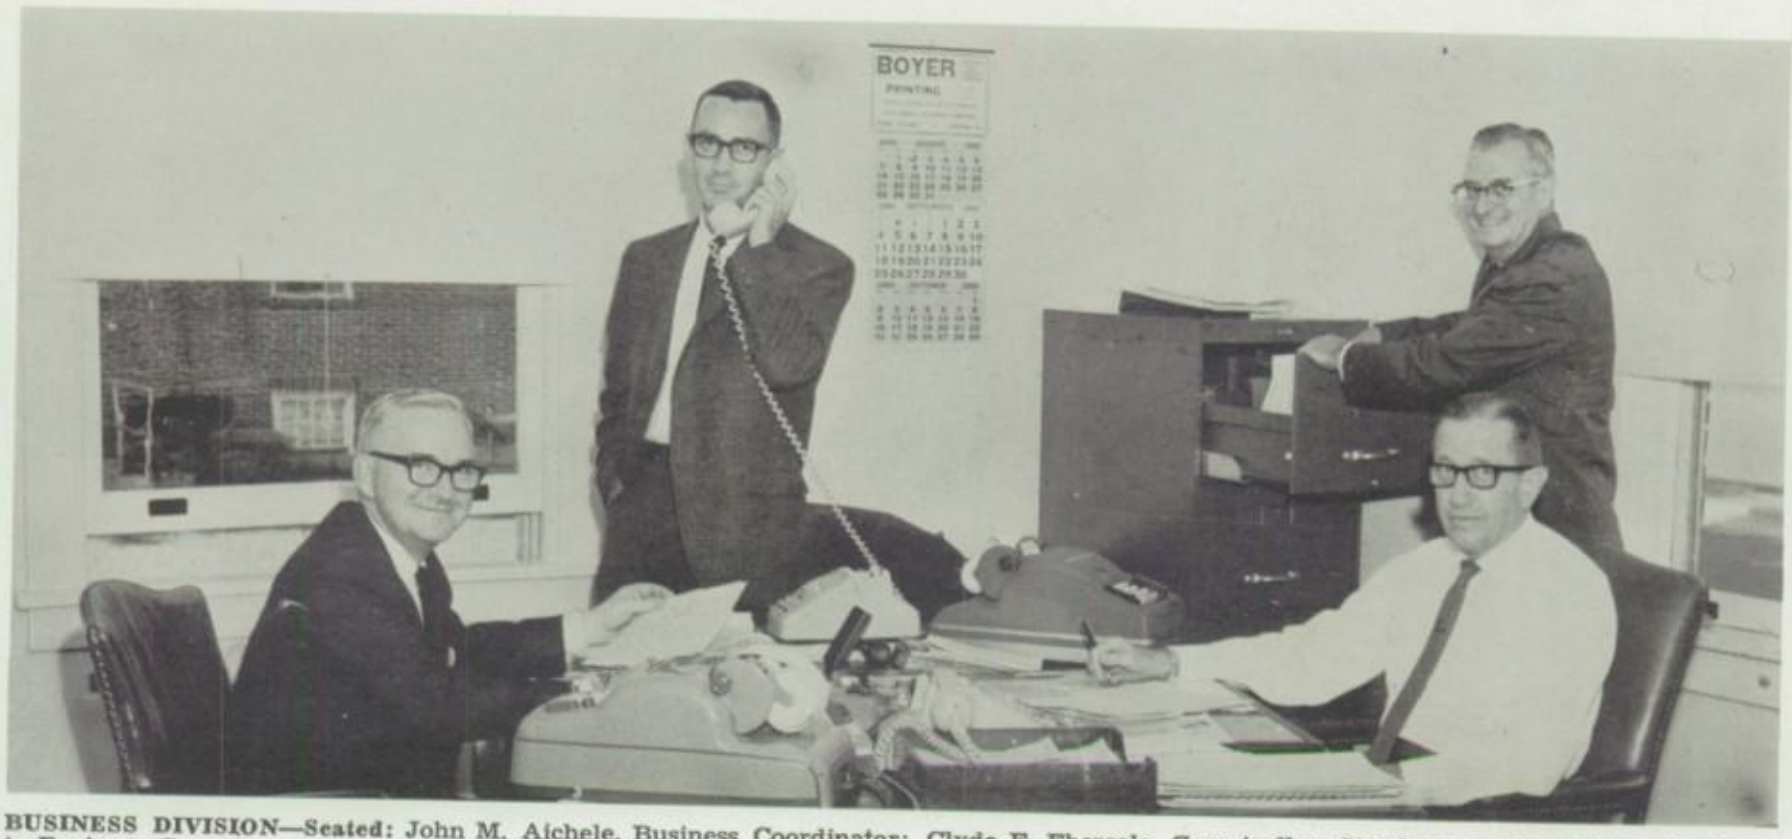
SUPERVISORS OF EDUCATION—Carl E. Stump, Assistant Director of Secondary Education; William R. Fisher, Director of Secondary Education; Donald R. Witman, Assistant Director of Intermediate Division; M. Nelson Durand, Director of Intermediate Division; William A. Hoover, Director of Elementary Education.

Responsibility for carrying out the educational policies and procedures set by the Board of Managers and by the Headmaster rests with this group. Such matters as orientation of personnel, procurement of supplies and teaching aids, improvement of instruction, classroom visitation, handbooks and rosters, student and departmental reports, scheduling, summer school, and counseling of students are their concern.

Supported by Capable Administrators

A happy home in the wholesome atmosphere of country living, where each boy strives for the personal and social maturity required for successful group living, results from the efforts of the Student Home Division. The procurement and training of houseparents, the coordination of home and school activities, the supervision of home recreation, and the scheduling of privileges rest with this group.

STUDENT HOME DIVISION STAFF—Seated: Lawrence E. Best, Director of Recreation; Alfred T. Gibble, Director of Houseparent Staff; William A. Hoover, Director of Junior Division; Gary W. Cooper, Asst. Director of Intermediate Division; Standing: M. Nelson Durand, Director of Intermediate Division, Jacob A. Klinedinst, Asst. Director of Senior Division; Joseph A. Brechbill, Director of Senior Division.



BUSINESS DIVISION—Seated: John M. Aichele, Business Coordinator; Clyde F. Ebersole, Comptroller. Standing: James Albrite, Assistant to Business Coordinator; Howard H. Baum, Manager, Supply Center.

Milton Hershey School provides every requirement for the physical, mental, and social growth and well-being of its students. Responsibility for the purchase of all supplies rests with the Business Division.

and Supervisory Personnel

The principal functions of the Department of Student Personnel Services are handling of all phases of the enrollment and termination processes, counseling students to help them adjust to their new environments and make the most of their abilities, arranging for college board tests and assisting with college applications, helping seniors to secure jobs, and directing family-school and public relations.

STUDENT ENROLLMENT, PLACEMENT, PUBLIC RELATIONS—Seated: Frederick D. Miller, Director of Student Placement; Mrs. Catherine Becker, Administrative Assistant; R. E. McLaughlin, Director of Student Personnel Services; Gene R. Layser, Assistant Student Placement. Standing: Thural V. Brehm, Director, Family-School Relations; Grant T. Custer, Director of Enrollment.

CAREFUL CHECK—Secretary Betty Funck and Mario Moratti, Assistant to the Manager of the Supply Center, check the files for information.

Dinner for fourteen might cause any housewife to panic, but dinner for fourteen hundred is routine to Mrs. Dorothy Kluck, who supervises food preparation at Central Kitchen.

The proverbial "soup to nuts" might easily be "socks to softballs," for everything needed by the student or student home is available through the Supply Center.

These Special Services

Complete medical facilities are provided students of Milton Hershey School in the ten bed clinic in Senior Hall, separate clinics in Memorial Hall and in Catherine Hall, as well as in a wing of Hershey Hospital reserved for serious or communicable diseases. Services of specialists are available.

NOW RELAX—Ronald Engle, 12-9, receives an injection from Dr. Claude F. Light in the presence of Nurses Eleanor Wood and Lois Lutz (left) and Nurse Ruth Essig.

ONE MOMENT—Dr. John Cooper, Orthodontist of Milton Hershey School, makes a final adjustment as Dental Assistant, Marion Freed, looks on.

Dental health is assured by regular check-ups, aided by X-ray when necessary. Using the finest equipment available, a competent staff cleans and treats teeth, fills caries, and provides needed dentures.

Satisfy Student Needs

Scheduled haircuts given students by two full-time barbers are an aid to good grooming.

Recreation and athletic contests in and between student homes are organized and supervised on a year round basis.

THAT TRIM LOOK—W. Mottin and A. Mormin receive scheduled haircuts from barbers Mr. Adam Beam and Mr. Allen Zook.

SECRETARIES—First Row: Mrs. Betty Lighty, Mrs. Rosalyn Dronsfield, Mrs. Avis Kercher, Mrs. Martha Allwein, Mrs. Helen Dodge, Miss Lois Bretz. Second Row: Mrs. Jane Stacks, Mrs. Lois Wolfe, Mrs. Betty Filepas, Mrs. Mary Hess, Mrs. Francis Wrona, Mrs. Teresa Funghi, Mrs. Judy Moyer.

A myriad of details must be co-ordinated in the day to day plans for the operation of Milton Hershey School. Our efficient secretarial staff takes dictation from administrators and types letters, memoranda, innumerable reports, and daily and weekly bulletins, which carry directives for the smooth operation of our school.

Reliable Staffs Keep Our

The setting of a typical noon meal for students is pictured here in the dining hall at Memorial Hall. Eight students are seated at a table with a teacher as a host and a student as assistant host. Proper table etiquette is practiced.

TIME FOR LUNCH—Miss Lynette E. Waller, teacher of music at Memorial Hall, serves as hostess at one of the dining tables and enjoys the conversation of eight young gentlemen.

SO DEAR TO OUR HEARTS—Our roving photographer caught these ladies of Central Kitchen busily engaged in the preparation of food.

With exception of breakfasts and week-end evening meals, all food is prepared by skilled hands using the most modern facilities in the main kitchen, located at the Supply Center and transported by a fleet of meal trucks to the various student homes.

School Running Smoothly

The vast complex of buildings on our campus and acres of landscaped grounds and miles of roads require the professional care of a large staff of maintenance men and custodians.

MASTERS OF MAINTENANCE—Mr. Woodrow W. Bonney, Director of Maintenance; Mr. Paul Pollock and Mr. Richard Miller are responsible for keeping our facilities in topnotch condition.

CAPABLE CUSTODIANS—First Row (front to rear): Messrs. David Gordon, William Kapp, Galen Wolfersberger, Paul Pollock, Director of Maintenance at Senior Hall, Charles Wolfersberger. Second Row: Messrs. Lloyd Keller and George Landis.

FAMILY LIVING—Student homes provide opportunities for democratic living and practice in the social graces.

The Hershey Way

Commencement is a time not only for looking ahead but also for reflecting and reminiscing. As we leave Milton Hershey School, which has been both home and school to us for so many years, we reflect on the changes these years have made in our lives and wonder what might have been our lot if these doors of opportunity had not been opened to us. Who made all this possible? Why?

Milton Snavely Hershey was born in a country which rewarded individual initiative and enterprise. He worked hard, economized, invested, and reaped the rewards of his industry. The proverbial "mousetrap, " in this instance is the world's best known chocolate bar. We Americans are beneficiaries of many ambitious men of independent spirit and imagination who became great in a land of opportunity. And only in those few countries of the world where such an attitude is allowed to prevail do the masses of people enjoy a relatively high standard of living.

Mr. Hershey was never content to rest on his laurels; he was always looking for ways to improve anything which he produced. In this he was characteristically American. Twenty years after his death many of his ideas for improving the school and the community he founded are being carried out by a progressive board of managers.

Milton Hershey School has undergone many changes in the past twenty years. There have been changes in housing, in classrooms, in methods of instruction, in transportation. Most important of all, great emphasis has been placed on individual differences and on providing courses of study and opportunities for learning and for self-expression which can best develop the individual. Diversity of origin, ability, and aptitude has made America great and it is this diversity which Milton Hershey School recognizes and seeks to develop. Every effort is being made to develop the whole boy, in mind, in body, and in spirit and in social attitudes. Only the purpose, to develop orphan boys into mature, self-reliant, self-supporting citizens, remains constant.

Milton Snavely Hershey did not use his good fortune selfishly. In this respect he was typically American, for Americans have given generously both at home and abroad to those in need. Mr. Hershey left the bulk of his fortune to the School which he had founded for the care and education of orphan boys - an experiment which will remain one of the greatest philanthropic enterprises of all time.

We are fortunate in having been a part of the Hershey Way, which, based on the ideals of independence, progress, and compassion, is truly The American Way.

Our Goal: Development of the Whole Boy

In Character And Personality

Through active participation in any of the various service organizations of Milton Hershey School, students gain experience in the process of democratic living and learn to assume responsibility and to work unselfishly for the good of the entire group. The National Honor Society, Headmaster's Society, Youth Forum, Student Senates, School Guides, and Explorer's Post are among the organizations that develop the qualities of leadership and character. To receive the coveted "Varsity H" Award, a student must participate in some varsity activity for a period of two years.

HEADMASTER'S SOCIETY—Members honored for service to school and homelife.

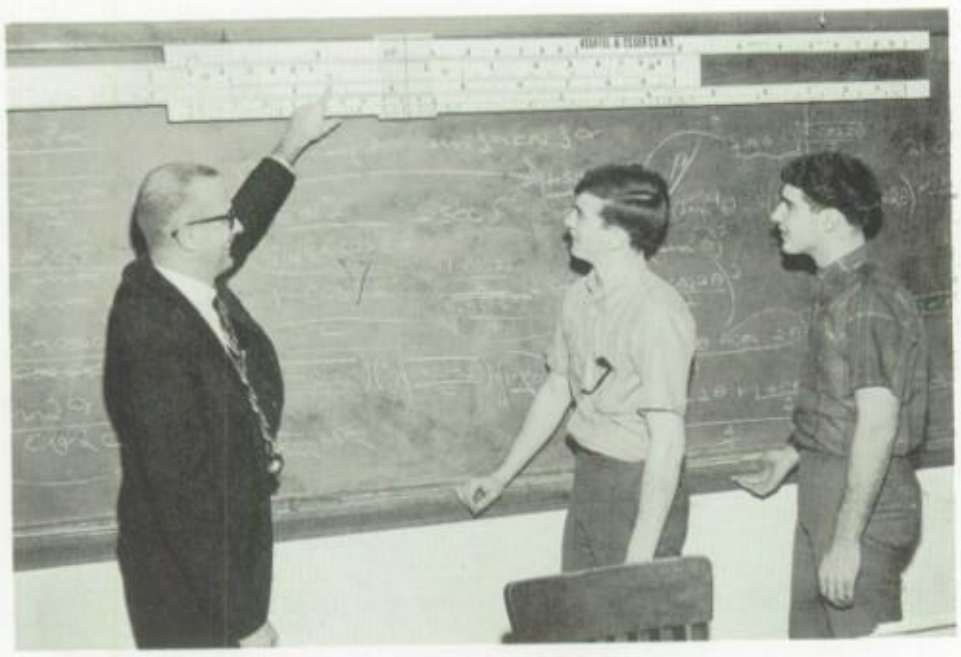
ACTIVITIES CLUB—Student leaders work for unity and school spirit.

EXPLORER POST—Scouts serve God and country.

STUDENT SENATE—Student home representatives promote the morale and general welfare of student body.

SCHOOL GUIDES—Students practice good public relations.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY—Students honored for scholarship, leadership, character, and service.



SOLUTION BY SLIDE RULE—Mr. John Cook of the math department explains the workings of the slide rule to G. Dawson and A. Parrish.

In Mental and Manual Skills

At Milton Hershey School every student is encouraged to develop all of his abilities to the fullest extent. Constant emphasis is placed on scholarship, and membership in the National Honor Society is a distinction recognized nationwide. The Distinguished Honor Roll, announced after every grade period, Scholar of the Month award, and College Aid for advanced study are among the outstanding incentives for high scholarship.

The foresight of Milton S. Hershey in requiring that vocational training be offered to students of the school is proven by the great demand today for vocational training in secondary schools.

ACCENT ON ACCURACY—Mr. Richard K. Dieterle checks drawing with students, emphasizing accuracy and neatness.

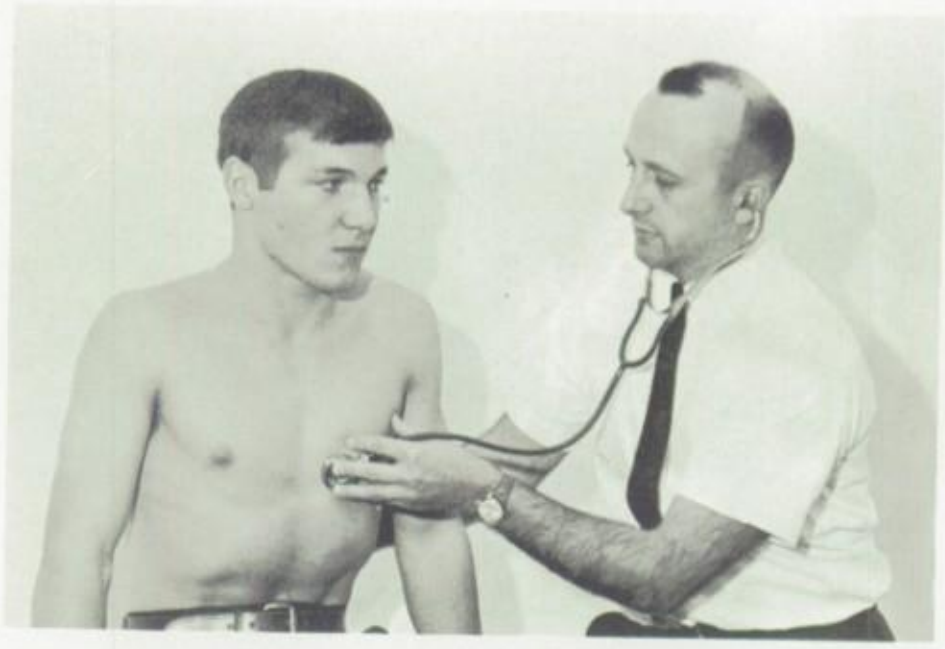
ROOF FRAMING—From a model of the rafter layout of the student-built home, students W. Stasik, D. Parker, and T. Atkinson check the lengths of rafters.

LEAD JOINT—In the plumbing shop, students J. Kradel, K. Sandoe, and W. Acree prepare a lead joint in cast iron pipe.

In Health

And

Physical Fitness



BREATHE DEEP—Michael Wright, 12-9, gets a complete physical examination from Dr. Claude F. Light, Medical Director of Milton Hershey School.

To develop sound, mature bodies and good physical well-being, the school insists on programs that produce good health habits. Students attend classes in health and physical education and engage in organized sports both at school and at the student homes.

In addition, each student follows a schedule that provides regular hours for rest, for meals, and for sleep. Fresh air, warm clothing, and sufficient quantities of nourishing food promote healthy bodies.

Annual check-ups of each student in the school by the medical staff is a preventative measure, and the services of this staff are always available when needed.

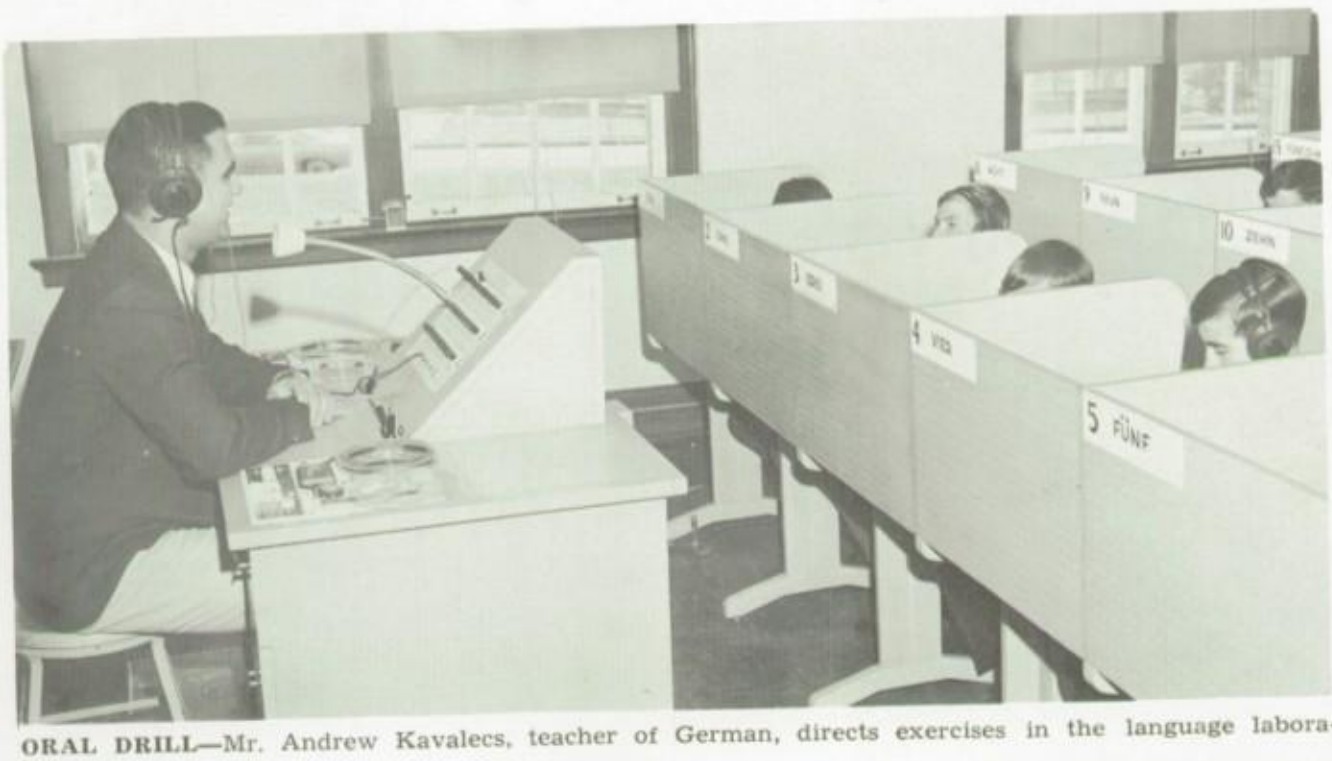
PHYSICAL COMPETITION—Outdoors. Each home has spacious lawns and playgrounds.

GYM CLASSES—Organized group exercise is supervised by qualified teachers

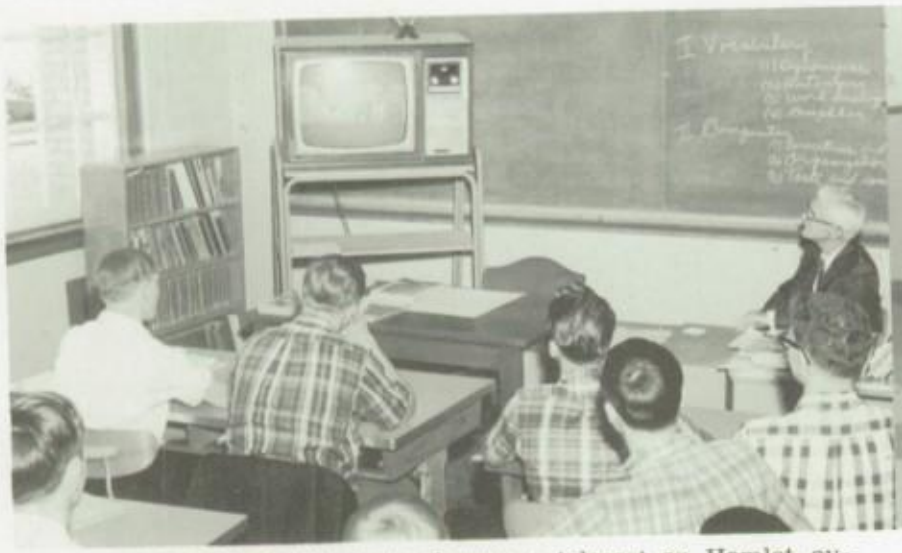
Our Tools: Unsurpassed Opportunities For Learning

DEVELOPMENTAL READING—Mr. George Hollich, teacher of remedial reading, demonstrates the value of the tachistiscope in advancing reading skills to students R. Morris, R. Blatt, and P. Mitchell.

OVERHEAD PROJECTOR—Visual aids are effectively used in a senior math class taught by Mr. Phillip S. Brown.



ORAL DRILL—Mr. Andrew Kavalecs, teacher of German, directs exercises in the language laboratory.



CLASSROOM TV—Students observe a telecast on Hamlet over Channel 33 in Mr. Strait's English Class.

ADVANCED MATH—Opportunities for individual help are provided by Mr. Thomas E. Searer, teacher of remedial math, for student K. Else, who is doing some advanced work.

Unswerving Devotion Of

Administrators, Teachers, And Houseparents

WARM WELCOME—Mr. and Mrs. Harry Engle, houseparents at Madison, greet entering student Joseph Norman, his sister Yolanda, and their mother, Mrs. Barbara Norman.

ANSWERS AVAILABLE—Mrs. Nellie Huber answers a question for N. Wertz, 12-8, as Carl E. Stump, Asst. Director of Secondary Education, and William R. Fisher, Director of Secondary Educatio.1, look on approvingly.

VETERAN TEACHERS — Seated: Miss Eleanor King, Mrs. Marion S. Ellenberger, Miss Leah C. Risser Standing: Mr. Earl R. Baugher, Mr. Charles L. Bikle, Mr C. Floyd Lichtenberger, Mr. Philip K. Shuler, Mr. Paul I. Kleinfelter. Their combined service to Milton Hershey School totals 281 years.

VETERAN HOUSEPARENTS—Mr. and Mrs. Warren Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Engle, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fink, Mr. and Mrs. William King, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Royer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams. These houseparent couples, listed by length of service, have served Milton Hershey School for a total of 222 years.

The Spartans Are Always Popular

The talented members of the Spartan Orchestra are looking forward to presenting a concert at the Central Pennsylvania Stage Band Competition to be held at Middletown this year. Last year the Spartans won First Place and, by custom, do not compete this year, but instead will present a short concert during the program. Graduation last June left the orchestra with the task of producing an entirely new saxophone section, but Director W. Purnell Payne now has an effective group made up of five seniors, three juniors, seven sophomores, and one freshman.

The Glee Club Brings

SING AWAY WITH MR. "A"—Mr. Virgil Alexander directs the Milton Hershey Glee Club.

Each year the Milton Hershey School Glee Club delights tens of thousands of music lovers in approximately fifty appearances in churches, schools, and community and convention halls.

This year, in addition to the dozens of concerts given in areas immediately surrounding the school, the club has gone on three tours– one through Lancaster county, one through central Pennsylvania, and one through the northeastern section of the state. Appearances are scheduled, as a rule, a year in advance; already the schedule for next year has been tentatively made up from requests received many months ago.

The glee club sings from a repertoire of over forty numbers, some religious, some secular–all committed to memory by the thirty-three boys who make up this organization. A striking feature of the club is its ability to improvise and to change or adapt its program to the type of audience that the occasion demands.

This ability and the high esprit de corps of the glee clubbers most likely account for the enthusiasm and acclaim with which their programs are received. When asked why the glee club possessed this outstanding spirit, Mr. Virgil Alexander, Director, said, "I think that I would say that a sense of communication is responsible. Our members like to talk things over among themselves. They share responsibility for both success and failure. The boys feel that it is their organization."

Because the glee club has been so well received by so many audiences both within our state and beyond its borders, it has brought great credit to our school and truly deserves the title of our "Singing Ambassadors."

Student officers for the current year are: Joseph O'Donnell, president; Lamar Levering, manager; Roy Thomas, librarian; John Beekman, secretary; and Jim Buckwalter, historian.

The Spartan Develops Literary Talents

SPARTAN CHIEFS—Mr. Richard O. Hugendubler, Co-adviser; Vincent Gravina, Editor-in-Chief; Mr. William G. Altland, Co-Adviser.

THE SPARTAN, Milton Hershey School's magazine of student compositions and various items, provides interesting reading for students while giving practical experience in writing and fine practice in layout and design to those who work on its contents.

There are six issues printed during Milton Hershey's school year. The issues are the Fall, Christmas, Literary, Alumni, Spring, and Graduation. Increased student interest and particiption, particularly more extensive student contribution of a better quality of creative writing, has made THE SPARTAN a student publication of which we can be proud.

The editoral staff was enlarged this year and the increased quality was apparent. Student articles contributed by boys not on their staff were a major part of the content and added much to the reading enjoyment.

THE SPARTAN advisory board of the 1966-67 school year consisted of Mr. William G. Altland, chairman; Mr. Richard Hugendubler, offset; Mr. Merl L. Stuckey, printing; Mr. Russell C. Klinger, circulation; and Mrs. Betty J. Lighty, subscription.

The student editors were: Vincent Gravina, Editor-in-Chief; David Cundy, Sports; Robert Bonchak, Alumni; Mark Reiter, Features; and Larry Herzberg, Exchange.

These boys, in addition to the many others who worked on THE SPARTAN, deserve much praise.

Acropolis Summarizes the Year's Activities

On the staff of the Acropolis rests the responsibility for selecting those scenes and events of the school year which seem of moment and for recording them in a yearbook which will grow more precious as the years go by.

Because Milton Hershey School is both home and school to over fourteen hundred boys, matters of housing, food, clothing, and transportation are part of the picture. Our constantly expanding facilities increase the wealth of materials to be covered and make our choice more exacting. Then, too, we are proud that our yearbook is composed, printed, and bound by our own print shop, where students, who study related subjects two weeks of each month and turn out THE SPARTAN magazine and countless other printed forms for the use of the school, are preparing to enter the printing field. We are necessarily limited in the number of pages at our disposal, But, by using photographs lavishly and limiting copy to that which is accurate, factual, interesting, and compact, we believe we have presented our story truthfully. We have established two firsts this year: This is the first year in which double divider pages have been used; in addition, this is the first Acropolis to carry a senior directory.

How successful we have been we leave to your judgment.

4-6 RECORD

This year's varsity football team, under the direction of Head Coach Robert Klingler and Assistant Coaches Fred Poorman and Anthony Colistra, posted a 4-6 record. The record doesn't truly indicate the season, as all league losses were by one point or one touchdown.

The Spartan attack was highlighted by the running of halfbacks "Beetle" Bailey and Mike Wright and by the line blocking of Joe Parrish and Mike McCarthy. Defensive standouts were David Harding, Buddy Sandoe, Andy Parrish and safety man Bill Kohl.

"Beetle" Bailey broke the school single game rushing record with 237 yards. He lugged the ball for a total of 1037 yards.

The Spartans are anxiously awaiting next year's league play. Thirteen veterans are returning next year: Gary McCalmont, Tom Davidson, Bob Kramer, Don Bunfield, Joe Parrish, Michael McCarthy, Gary Westfall, Dale Wolford, John Egnew, Milt Block, James Weidman, David Nicholas and Mike Nuttal, along with the products of a strong junior varsity.

This year's varsity basketball team, under the coaching of John A. Cook, had a losing record, but made great gains in building toward future success. Fielding a team that had only one returning letterwinner, Buddy Sandoe, team captain, Coach Cook elected to go with his underclassmen in order that they might gain experience for coming years.

Seniors Buddy Sandoe, Tom Urbanavage, and Joe Moran were in much of the action along with juniors Tom Davidson, Jon Egnew and Don Bunfield. Sophomores John Mardula and Jim Hamilton also played often.

The remaining seniors, Sam Temple, Tom Crilley, and Tom McClay all provided experience in ball-handling and defense when called upon.

Our team this year scored 1,268 points in twenty-two games for a 57.6 point clip.

Top scores for the Spartans were Tom Urbanavage with 249; Buddy Sandoe with 204; Tommy Davidson with 125; and Tom Crilley rounded it off with 130 counters.

The top boardmen this year were Tommy Davidson, Joe Moran, and Buddy Sandoe with 205, 180, and 159 rebounds respectively.

Top honors in assists went to Tom Urbanavage, Jim Hamilton, and Buddy Sandoe.

We can look forward to the coming seasons because of the sacrifices made by this year's squad. The seniors, in their willingness to let the underclassmen play, have made this season a successful one in a rebuilding program.

Spartan Grapplers Prove

Milton Hershey's wrestlers finished the twentieth season with a record of nine wins and five losses, placing fourth in Section 1 of the Harrisburg Area Conference.

Among the outstanding wrestlers on the squad were Tim Rupp in the 103 lb. weight division, Glenn Alexander in the 138 lb. weight division and Bill Kohl in the 145 lb. weight division, all three of whom had a 13-1 record for the season. Jim Rupp in the 95 lb. class had a 10-4 record.

Five veterans joined the squad at the beginning of the season and five varsity, including co-captains Glenn Alexander and Mike Wright will be graduating. Seven letterman will be returning for the 1967-68 season.

Head Coach Ray A. Faidley and Assistant Coaches D. Willis Hartman and Anthony Colistra accepted an invitation for the squad to wrestle in the Lehigh National Prep School Championship Tournament, in which the Spartans had

CLASS SONG OF 1967

We're men of Milton Hershey
Who will soon be on our way
Sadly we say farewell
Proudness in our hearts will stay.
To show the world that we are ready;
To show the world that we can try.
We're men of Milton Hershey
And we will raise our banners high!

To thee our Alma Mater
We lift our voices strong
We'll thank thee evermore
For teaching right from wrong
We'll always sing thy praises
Lifting voices toward heaven
Farewell to the Milton Hershey
From the class of "sixty seven".
